

DWMUN'24 Code of Conduct

The provided code of conduct must be followed by all parties during DWMUN'24 and also during any interactions which may be established during DWMUN'24. This includes but is not limited to all sessions on all three days of the conference and prior interactions preceding the conference such as orientation sessions, text conversations or calls. This code has to be followed strictly and anyone violating the code of conduct will be barred from attending DWMUN'24 and its future editions. Any and all incidents/situations which may seem inappropriate to delegates should be reported to the Organising Committee of DWMUN'24.

1. The conference will be held at Delhi Public School, Whitefield located at Survey No. 123/124, Mallasandra Village, Hoskote Taluk, Bengaluru, Karnataka 560067.

2. The attire for the conference will be as follows:
  - Day 1 - Western Business Attire
  - Day 2 - Indian Business Wear/Western Business Attire
  - Day 3 - Western Business Attire

Lok Sabha delegates are allowed to wear Indian Business Wear on all days as per their choice.

3. All delegates must report on time on all three days of DWMUN'24. The timings will be communicated via email and will also be put up on social media.
4. Lunch is not included in the registration fee being charged. Delegates are permitted to bring their own lunch or can buy from the stalls that will be put up in the school. Refreshments and snacks will be provided to the delegates.
5. The following items will be prohibited inside the premises of DPS Whitefield:
  - Drugs
  - Alcohol
  - Cigarettes/Vapes
  - Lighters
  - Pornography
  - Sharp Objects

Such items if found with delegates will be confiscated and the delegate will be barred from attending the conference and its future editions.

6. The Organising Committee reserves the right to restrict entry into DWMUN'24.
7. Unprofessional behavior will not be tolerated during the duration of the conference and strict action will be taken against those violating this rule.

With this being kept in mind, the Organising Committee of DWMUN'24 requests the delegates to adhere to the code of conduct. Not adhering to the code of conduct in any circumstances will lead to immediate disbaring from the conference and its future editions. Strict actions will also be taken by the administration of Delhi Public School, Whitefield.
